Word Sent to Gen. Chaffee to Use His Own Judgment and President Will Support Him-Desire for Peace Not to Be Allowed to Impair Our Prestige.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. Manila, April 23 .- Gen. Wade, commanding the southern division of the army in the Philippines, believes that a prompt advance would settle the Moro trouble with little bloodshed. So far there has been small opposition to the Americans by the recalcitrant Dattos, while many who are familar with the situation assert that the Dattos, who at present are not very closely connected by ties of friendship, might unite their forces should the Americars abandon the advantage they have already gained. WASSINGTON, April 23 .- As a result of last night's conference at the White House regarding the situation in Mindanao cabled instructions were sent to Gen. Chaffee to-day, by direction of the President, leaving to his discretion the conduct of operations against the Moros.

Gen. Chaffee's positive declaration in his despatch of yesterday that withdrawal our forces from Mindanao would ruin American prestige and that a partial withdrawal would be dangerous determined the President to support Gen. Chaffee his contemplated operations against the Moros. While he desires that peaceful means be used as far as possible, he orders that nothing be done to impair our prestige or in any other way imperil the army. The cable despatch sent by Adjutant-

General Corbin to Gen. Chaffee says: Your cable of yesterday has been submitted by the acting Secretary of War to the President, who directs that you keep in mind the President's orders, but of course do nothing that will impair our prestige or in any other way imperil the army. If, after the expiration of the time named in your proclamation and after all possible diplomatic and friendly methods have been exhausted, your demand for the Moro murderers has not been met, you will act upon the line that in your judgment will best serve to bring about peace and order in the Island of Mindanao. CORBIN '

The other correspondence with Gen. Chaffee by which the President sought to prevent a conflict was made public at the War Department this morning. It includes Gen. Chaffee's first cable message, received last week, telling of the attitude of the Moros, and gives the orders sent Gen. Chaffee as follows:

"WAR DEPARTMENT,
"ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
"WASHINGTON, April 20, 1902.

*Chaffee, Manila: Expedition ordered under Baldwin will not leave coast until you hear from here. This will not, however, interfere with complete preparation. CORBIN."

*April 22, 1902.

*Chaffee, Manila: "The President is anxious that no expedition be made against Moros until all efforts by negotiation have been exhausted. To this end he desires that you confer freely with the acting Civil Governor. In the event the force has to be sent he directs that it go under the immediate command of Gen Davis. The President will give you all support, but desires exercise of great care and prudence. If possible, avoid by all honorable means general war.

"CORBIN." "April 22, 1902.

"Chaffee, Manila: With reference to previous cables on subject it has been suggested to President that possibly surrender of the Moro mur-derers might be effected by instrumentality friendly Dattos. President desires this to have assurance every honorable peaceful remedy has been exhausted. CORBIN.

THE ROOT ARMY BILL.

Opposition in Senate Comes Largely From Partisans of Gen. Miles.

WASHINGTON, April 23.- There has been no consideration of the Root Army Reorganization bill in the Senate Millitary Com mittee since the day, about two weeks ago, when Gen. Schofield replied to Gen. Miles's criticism of the measure and advocated it as important and essential to the discipline of the army and its proper administration Up to the time that Gen. Schofield gave his testimony the committee was understood to be strongly opposed to the Root measure, the opposition coming largely from those Senators on the committee who are adherents of Gen. Miles and his supporters in his controversy with the President and Secretary Root. Gen. Schofield's outspoken condemna tion of the present antiquated methods of army management had a marked effect and created a strong sentiment in the committee favorable to the bill. Its opponents therefore caused action to be postpormed, and a new turn has now been given to the situation by the introduction yesterday of a bill to enlarge and define the duties of Lieutenant-General.

Senator Hawley, chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, is the sponsor for the measure, which was introduced by request. Undoubtedly it was prepared in Gen. Miles's office and introduced at his suggestion. Gen. Hawley is counted as one of the radical Miles men in the committee. It is impossible yet to say what will be done with the measure. No meeting of the committee has been called to consider it, and probably none will until will be done with the measure. No meeting of the committee has been called to consider it, and probably none will until Secretary Root returns from Cuba, about May 1. He will then urge action upon the measure, which has been pending all session and known as "The Root bill"

It is thought probable that the attitude of the Senate toward the Root and the Miles bill may be foreshadowed to-morrow by the result of the consideration in executive session of the nomination of Capt. Crozier to be Chief of Ordnance. This nomination was reported adversely from the Military Committee, largely through the influence of the Miles men on the committee. If Crozier shall be confirmed, as he he probably will, it would be a straw indicating the sentiment of the Senate on the reorganization bill.

There is a clique of bureau officers in the War Department who are working hard to defeat the measure in order to save their own skins, as they express it, and they may OLEOMARGARINE IN THE HOUSE. enate Amendments Made the Continuing Order by a Vote of 152 to 79.

WASHINGTON, April 23.-The House today, by a vote of 152 to 79, adopted a resolution from the Committee on Rules making Senate amendments to the Oleomargarine bill, the continuing order of business, and spent the rest of the session in their consideration.

The resolution was opposed by Mr. Cowherd (Dem. Mo.),. What reason, he inquired, was there for this consideration of a neasure whose only object was to destroy one American industry for the benefit of another? At this time, when the prices of food products were going up, the Committee on Rules proposed to tax an article of food that poor men buy. Last week the House had under consideration a bill for

House had under consideration a bill for the relief of suffering Cubans

"Tears of sympathy for the Cubans, sneers and taxes for the poor men of the United States," said Mr. Cowherd, "seems to be the motto of the majority."

He read price quotations to show that the effect of the passage of the bill in the Senate was to increase the price of creamery butter, which had at the same time reduced the price of milk, which was the product of the farmer. There was no scarcity of butter to justify the increase, which had been greater, he said, than that of any other food product, and other increase had been due to scarcity of supply on the market. And now in order to facilitate the passage of the bill in the House, the price of butter had been reduced. It was an outrage on legislation, Mr. Cowherd said, that an order should be reported for this bill, when more important measures were neglected. The resolution was agreed to 152

The resolution was agreed to -152 to 79, and the House went into Committee of the Whole to consider the Senate amendments. The Senate amendments were advocated by Messrs. Henry (Rep., Conn.), and Graff (Rep., Ill.), and opposed by Messrs. Scott (Rep., Kan.), and Mann (Rep., Ill.). All efforts to change the text of the Senate amendments, save in the few relatively properties.

unimportant particulars recommended by the Committee on Agriculture, were futile Without concluding consideration of the measure, the committee rose, and the House adjourned until to-morrow.

CAPT. CHAS. E. CLARK DECLINES

WILL NOT GO TO CORONATION OF KING EDWARD VII.

The Expense Will Be Too Great for His Private Purse and He Will Not Accept Contributions From Others - Rear Admiral Watson Appointed in His Place

WASHINGTON, April 23 .- On account of nsufficient private means to bear the expense to which he would be put as the repsentative of the United States Navy at the coronation of King Edward VII., Capt. Charles E. Clark, who commanded the battleship Oregon in the Spanish-American War, has declined that honor, and the President has designated Rear Admiral John C. Watson in his place. Capt. Clark was personally selected by Mr. Roosevelt o be the naval representative.

When Capt. Clark was asked to go to London as a member of the Special American Embassy to the coronation, he showed some hesitation in accepting the honor on account of the private expense attached It was arranged, however, that an allotment should be made out of the contingent fund to cover the cost of his trip abroad. Later the British Government notified the State Department that it would pay the expenses for coronation week of the American envoys, who, besides Capt. Clark, are Whitelaw Reid of New York, Special Ambassador, and Brig.-Gen. James H. Wilson. U. S. A., retired, the army representative, This offer did not include the members of the families of the American delegates, which meant, of course, that those who would be accompanied by their wives would be put to considerable additional expense.

be put to considerable additional expense. It was said to-day that Capt. Clark not only did not care to go to England without Mrs. Clark, but that he had found that even if she remained at home his expenses, outside of those that could properly be paid by the British and American governments, would be too great for his private pursue. rould be too great for his private purse While some naval officers expressed the opnion that this matter was one that should not be discussed publicly, others were glad that the occasion had arisen to show how indifferent this Government is to providing means for the adequate participation of its official representatives in public ceremonies abroad. Other Governments, naval men say, provide entertainment funds for their say, provide entertainment funds for their envoys to great international affairs such as King Edward's coronation, and while the United States had occasionally done so the amounts allotted were entirely too small for the purpose. An instance cited was that of Whitelaw Reid's participation in the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Victoria, in 1897, as the Special American Ambassador. Only $10,000 was appropriated by Congress for the expenses of Mr. Reid and the members of the Special Embassy, and he was obliged to go down into his private the was obliged to go down into his private purse to the extent of $20,000.

purse to the extent of $20,000.

When the question came up recently in Administration circles of asking Congress to make an appropriation for the expenses of the American delegation to the coronation, Mr. Reid and the Secretaries of the Embassy, who include J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., and William Wetmore, son of the Senator from Rhode Island, informed the State Department that they would bear all the Department that they would bear all the costs of their mission abroad. It is understood that they were willing also to private contribution for the additional personal expense to which Capt. Clark would be put, but that he declined

TILLMAN ATTACKS HOAR. Breaks Senate Rules.

WASHINGTON, April 23.-Among the bills introduced in the Senate during the morning hour to-day was one by Mr. Deboe (Rep., Ky.), creating a commission to inquire into the condition of the colored men in the United States. It was referred. The bill to provide for a union railroad station in the District of Columbia, which was under discussion in the morning hour yesterday, was taken up, the question being on an amendment offered by Mr. Patterson (Dem., Col.), to open the improvements to all railroad companies desiring to use them. The amendment was opposed by Mr. McMillan (Rep., Mich.), in harge of the bill, who said that the whole thing would fall through if that amendment were incorporated in the bill. "I do not think," said Mr. Teller (Sil., oi), "that the railroad companies have got the Government by the throat I should doubt very much whether the leading men of the Pennsylvania railroad corporation would be so unwise as to object to that provision."

Mr. Hoar took part in the discussion and soon got into a wordy altercation with Mr Tillman (Dem., S. C.), who intimated that the Massachusetts Senator had been that the Massachusetts Senator had been more or less discourteous to him. "As the Senator," Mr. Tillman added, "is always a stickier for good order and decorum and Senatorial dignity, and all that sort of thing, he ought to set a high example for us youngsters. But I notice that the Senator from Massachusetts habitually breaks cartein, order of the Senator from Massachusetts habitually breaks cartein.

Then he referred to Mr. Foraker (Rep., Ohio), who had made a remark while standing on the Republican side of the chamber,
while his seat is on the Democratic side, as "gyrating out of his orbit." Probably he would have to withdraw that remark, too, he added in a tone of pleasantry.

Mr. Foraker asked Mr. Tillman what he meant by referring to him as "gyrating."

Your orbit is over here. Mr. Tillman responded, pointing to the location of Mr.
Foraker's desk, "and lesting on the Republican side of the chamber I spoke of the

GEN. FUNSTON REPRIMANDED.

President Requests Him to Stop Publi Discussion of Philippine Situati

WASHINGTON, April 23.-The President has reprimanded Brig.-Gen. Frederick Funston, commanding the Department of the Colorado, for his recent speech at a ban-quet in Denver, when he declared that Senator Hoar was afflicted "with an overheated conscience."

In addition to administering a rebuke for talking too much about the situation in the Philippines, President Roosevell has disapproved Gen. Funston's request for permission to leave his department to attend the dinner of the Middlesex Club in Boston next week. Gen. Funston's request and a protest from friends of Senator Hoar came to the President's attention about the same time. He immediately denied the request, and late yesterday directed Acting Secretary of War Sanger to tell Gen. Funston to stop talking about the conditions in the Philip-pines. Col. Sanger's letter, mailed to Gen. Funston to-day, says:

"I am directed by the President to instruct you that he wishes you to cease further public discussion of the situation in the Philippines, and also to express his regret that you should make a Senator of the United States the object of public criticism. or discussion.

PANAMA CANAL PROTOCOL.

WANT PENSIONS FOR EX-SLAVES. Delegation of Vaughan's "Justice Party" Call on the President.

WASHINGTON, April 23.-A delegation. representing Vaughan's Justice party, which has been holding a political conference in Washington for the last four days, called on President Roosevelt this morning. There were only thirteen of them, all colored, but they represented, so they told the President, a total vote of 900,600. The issue of this new political party is the question of pensioning the ex-slaves. The President's visitors presented a long petition, outlining the purposes of the party, and offering to affiliate with either the Republicans or the Democrats on condition of espousal of the bill to pension the former slaves. The party claims, of course, to be especially strong in the South.

barges Made Against Him by American Residents in That Country That He Does Not Look After Their Interests. WASHINGTON, April 23.-From what was said to-day in some official quarters, it is probable that Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter of Kentucky, United States Minister to Guatemala, who reached New Orleans on Monday night, will not return to his post. Nobody will admit that Dr. Hunter is to be asked to resign, but a pretty strong hint was given that, in view of the difficulties in which he has become involved with Americans in Guatemala, he will be unwilling to go back there. Whether he will be transferred to some other post will not be determined until Dr. Hunter comes to Washington.

Some of the charges against the Minister which A. B. Jekyl and John Drummond who arrived in New Orleans on the same steamer with Dr. Hunter, say they will present to President Roosevelt are not new to the Government. The most serious accusation, that Dr. Hunter made Mme. Bar the Government. The most serious accusation, that Dr. Hunter made Mme. Barrios, the wife of a former Guatemala President, give him her furniture and bric-àbrac in payment for providing a refuge for her in the United States Legation, was originally made by R. H. May of Mississippi, who had a claim against Guatemala. May built a railroad for the Guatemala Government and failed to get payment.

In presenting his claim for redress to the State Department he said that Dr. Hunter had not properly looked after his interests and also made the accusation concerning the belongings of Mme. Barrios. The State Department investigated these charges and decided that there was not sufficient evidence to show that Dr. Hunter had done anything wrong.

During President McKinley's first term a petition was presented to him from American residents of Guatemala asking for Dr. Hunter's removal on the general ground that he did not protect Americans from illegal acts of the Guatemala Government. These charges were investigated and President McKinley decided not to remove the Minister. The charges to be made by Messrs. Jekyl and Drummond against Dr. Hunter's son will not be noticed by the State Department because young Hunter has no official status. Department by the State Department because young Hunter has no official status. Department officers said to-day that they had notheard that the young man had been expelled from Guatemala for insulting an Ameri-

Dr. Hunter's return to this country was not made at the suggestion of the State Department. In March he applied for leave and the request was granted in a letter mailed on March 27.

MINISTER HUNTER MAY RESIGN TRY THE AVENUE. SAYS OLCOTT At the Foody Trial -There's Where Jerome

Gets His Drinks on Sunday The third day of the trial of Police Captain Michael E. Foody did not quite bring the prosecution to an end as District Attorney Jerome had expected and an agreemen was reached to adjourn until Monday morning at 9:30. When William C. Hamilton, a Parkhurst society agent, was testifying Assistant District Attorney Senoford asked him about a visit to the West Shore Hotel at Forty-second street and Eleventh avenue, where Hamilton said he got drinks on Sunday

"Did you register there as required in the case of hotels?" asked Mr. Sandford. "I object," said Foody's counsel, Judge Olcott. "It's unfair. You can't register at Delmonico's. Why don't they get those Fifth avenue places that Mr. Jerome and Mr. Sandford visit on Sunday?" "I don't visit any. I can't afford it said Mr. Sandford. Mr. Jerome was not in court at the time Cross-examined, Hamilton said that he found no indication of any effort to henforce the Excise law on Sunday, March 30, in Foody's precinct and that he was refused in Foody's precinct and that he was refused drinks in no place.

Hamilton said that all his visits of investigation on March 30 were in the day time. According to the testimony of the county detectives yesterday, it was in the evening that the patrolmen began to realize the presence of the detectives in the district, and then the arrests began. It was the night platoon in Foody's precinct that "revolted."

"Have you told of all the places against

"Have you told of all the places against which you obtained evidence?"
"No. I got evidence against another place, in the Nineteenth precinct (the Ten-derloin.)"

"Who was the captain there?" "Who was the captain there?"
"Capt. Sheehan."
The witness said he had been with the Parkhurst society since January. Previous to that he had done detective work for the New York Expert Detective Bureau. Before that he was a funeral director, he said, and at other times had been employed in a manicure and hairdressing place, and in a pharmacy shop.

and in a pharmacy shop.

Agent Bowman, of the Parkhurst society, who accompanied Hamilton on his rounds, testified in corroboration of Hamilton.

Mr. Jerome arrived while he was on the Agent Leitenberger told of more places in Capt. Foody's precinct where he had secured drinks on Sunday.

"Did you ever speak to or make a report to Capt. Foody or any of his officers or men about the violations with about the violations."

about the violations you observed in his precinct?" asked Judge Olcott.
"No." Other county detectives gave similar testimony to that given on the first two days of the trial and an adjournment was

DR. HUNTER NOT DISTURBED. Minister to Guatemala Says the Charges Against Him Are Lies.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 23 .- Dr. W. Godrey Hunter, United States Minister to Guatemala and Honduras, arrived in Louisville this morning from New Orleans. When asked about the charges made public at New Orleans by A. R. Jekyll and indorsed by Gen. John Drummond, Dr. Hunter said:

"I have never seen or heard of Jekyll.

"I have never seen or heard of Jekyll. Drummond is a professional revolutionist and masquerades as an American whenever it suits him. He asked me to collect a claim for $10,000 against the Guatemalan Government and I refused on two grounds: First, because Drummond is a British subject, and second, because I regarded the claim as fraudulent.

"Drummond was in jail in Guatemala and the British Minister had him released on condition that he would leave the country. You see I cannot afford to answer charges made by such a character. The charges are a tissue of falsehoods from beginning to end and concocted to injure me."

When asked about his son Dr. Hunter said that he was at Hot Springs, Va., and would probably be able to join him here. Dr. Hunter said that his visit to Kentucky was for business and pleasure. He does not expect to visit Washington during the present trip to the United States. Dr. Hunter says that his relations with the American colony are of the most pleasant character.

SAD CASE.

A Young, Strong Man, Apparently in Perlect Health, Took a Slight Cough and Died Within One Week.

The Doctors Attending Him Said: "Had He Taken Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey While He Thought He Was Healthy, It Would Have Built Up New Tissue and Prevented His

Untimely Death."

Thousands like this young man are run down and their blood is impoverished, and they do not know it until it is too inte. The case mentioned is of a young, athletic fellow 28 years of age, who was the picture of health, He contracted a slight bronchial cough on Wednesday, which gradually grew worse, until Friday night, when he had a hemorrhage of the lungs, which cut him off in the prime of life. He died the next Wednesday, just one week from the day he went home apparently a strong man.

Lessons like this should teach every one to be careful of the condition of the system See that the blood is kept rich and circulates perfectly, and that the tissues of the body are not wasting without your knowledge. If you think the system is run down, if you take cold easily, if you have a hacking cough, a ticking in your throat, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It will cure the cough and cold and prevent any further complications Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is absolutely pure and contains no fusel oil or other dangerous ingredient. Do not fill your system full of drugs and compounds that you known othing about. They injure the stomach and merely deaden the pain. They do not cure A leading New York doctor said: "DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY is a form of food already digested." It aids digestion, stimulates and enriches the blood, tones the heart, builds new tissue, gives elasticity to the muscles and invigorates the brain.

I would not have been here to-day only for your wanderful medicine. I have used all kinds of medicine and been under the care of doctors. I have had three severe attacks of grip and pneumonia, which have left me with a bad cough and weak heart. I am 67 years old. It has toned up my system and stopped the hemorrhages and I cough but very little. I only regret that I did not know of your whiskey before. I cannot express what it has done for me. I beg to remain yours respectfully.
